

Night at the Museum

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Numerous people walked through the doors of Phillips County Museum Friday, Nov. 5 to learn about different areas and to enjoy talking with others. Peggy Davis (above) describes the hospital displays while Carrie Anderson (below) plays the organ for people to enjoy. Other items highlighted were an old coal burning stove, record player and some vehicles.

—Enterprise photos

