Tuesday, Feb. 24.

□ Coach Arlan Scholl noted they had a good district tournament, winning two out of three games. “I was very pleased with the effort that all of the girls gave,” said Scholl.

□ “We are very proud to have played in the District Championship game for the sixth year in a row,” said Scholl. “I know the team will be ready to play the upcoming regional game.”

□ Scholl commented he would like to thank the great Holyoke fans for their continued support of the Lady Dragons.

Holyoke 46, Wray 60

□ Holyoke finished up district games with the championship round against Wray last Saturday with a tough 46-60 loss to the Eagles.

□ Scholl noted, “We played very hard against Wray, but had a poor second quarter, committing too many turnovers.” Wray outscored Holyoke 20-7 in the second quarter, giving them a 15-point lead at halftime.

□ “After getting behind to a team like Wray, it is very difficult to get back and get the win,” said Scholl.

□ Holyoke played strong in the second half, outscoring the Eagles 32-31, but they could not take over the lead Wray established in the first half.

□ Marissa Smith led the Dragon scoring with 19 points including three three-point shots. Maddie Starkebaum earned the team 11 points, and Katie Hoffner came in with nine.

□ From the line, Smith made six out of seven free throws, and Hoffner landed three out of five. Statistics
