

Safety touted for FFA Week

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Kindergartner Reid Sprague, pictured at right, prepares a question for Jon King Friday, March 1 at the FFA Barnyard event. King, representing Highline Electric, demonstrated for the group of elementary children the importance of safety around power lines and electricity. Hogs, bulls, goats, calves, horses, roosters and sheep were also on display for elementary children as the event concluded the activities for FFA week.

☐☐—Enterprise photo

Click here for more!

Holyoke Enterprise March 7, 2013