

Accident shuts down Highway 385

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

High winds caused a feed truck to blow off the road approximately 2.5 miles south of Holyoke on Highway 385 Friday, Oct. 4 over the noon hour. The truck rested on its passenger side, covering both lanes of the highway as traffic was diverted to county roads. □ □

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise October 10, 2013